

The following Article has been CORRECTED by using Gold highlighting "for showing right" and red printing "for showing wrong", so that you can see and decipher/sort out how twisted and slanted the reporting, in our present World society. It is now so twisted, so that evil is good, and good is evil. Reporting is so twisted biased BACKWARD, that one now has to use colored print to sort out right from wrong.

Jerusalem Post > Israel News

Rabbi Thau calls on followers to 'wage war' on Israel's LGBT community

Thau refers in a new book to LGBT people as a "new culture of eliminating the family" and a "crime against humanity."

By JERUSALEM POST STAFF

Published: AUGUST 7, 2023 11:02

Updated: AUGUST 7, 2023 13:54

Rabbi Zvi Thau attends the "Yeshivot March" to call for the strengthening of Jewish identity in the State of Israel against the Conversion Law and Kashrut Law on January 30, 2022 in Jerusalem.

Left-wing activist Yair ("Yaya") Fink filed a police complaint on Monday after the head of Yeshiva Har Hamor, Rabbi Zvi Thau, called on his followers to "wage war" against "postmodernism" and LGBT people which he called a "crime against humanity."

The 90-page book, titled "On Dealing with Postmodernism and Breaking Free from its Shackles," was published recently by the Hosen Yeshuot publisher of Yeshivat Har Hamor.

The description of the book on the publisher's website reads "The book contains the lessons of Rabbi Zvi Israel Thau about postmodernism, which is increasingly spreading in human culture - its destructive essence, the way it operates, its dangers to humanity in general and to Israel in particular, the ways of dealing with it and the duty to fight it."

Top Articles

Read More

Smotrich ignores national security plea for NIS 200m. for Arab sector

"From a profound religious perspective, drawing from [Rabbi Abraham Isaac Kook's] teachings, the rabbi explains the reason for the spread of postmodern thought precisely in our time and what will grow from it during our redemption."

While Thau's book does not explicitly refer to the word LGBT, it does frequently discuss matters relating to LGBT people, referring to the LGBT community as a "new culture of eliminating the family," according to Haaretz.

protest against far right Noam party at Mahane Yehuda market in Jerusalem (credit: Courtesy)

The book complains about efforts to place “parent 1” and “parent 2” in lieu of “father” and “mother” on government forms, among other issues. The book focuses largely on family structure, including comments such as “the period of childhood is a very important period for instilling basic values and basic distinctions, and when a child does not have a father and a mother, all the normal relation to his origin, his past, and his future is blurred.” Thau's book refers to this situation as a “crime against humanity.”

"Without a family, there is no historical continuity and connection with the previous generations, there is no common national identity, there is no heritage, and there is no tradition, and the person then becomes completely disconnected," writes Thau in the book.

"The blurring of the sexual identity of the child until he does not know whether he is a boy or a girl undermines his more elementary confidence in his identity, and hence the path to eliminating his Jewish identity is short, and since he is not sure of his national identity, he loses the power to stand against the national narrative, the power to protect the people, the faith in fulfilling the promises of the prophets, and desires a state that is nothing more than a mixed multitude."

"We are not used to fighting, and many times we feel an internal inhibition from saying our words with the fierceness and audacity of holiness. There are also those who think that those who were educated on the rabbi's teachings (a reference to Kook) must be pleasant and nice... but the mistake is theirs. It is our duty to act courageously and without fear in taking a stand and expressing an opinion against every idea and method that comes to consume the vineyard of Israel."

"Just as in times of existential danger to the body [one's physical body= when someone is physically hitting you], one does not adhere to the rules of etiquette and respect... all the more so, in times of danger to the life of the soul.

At a time when a mental illness emerges [homosexual thinking emerges], which may corrupt and destroy every good part of the nation's spirit and soul, there is no escape but to go to war and sometimes even express it [go against homosexuality] with harsh and shocking [STRONG] expressions that are not pleasant for everyone. There is no place to weaken the protest of the Torah [NO PLACE TO WEAKEN THE WORDS OF GOD in the Bible against Homosexuality] because of polite conventions."

Thau [who is against LGBT] has been accused of raping and sexually abusing at least two women [Thau is innocent, until proven guilty]. Israel Police announced in June that they had completed the investigation into the rabbi's case and had transferred the materials collected to the State Attorney's Office. There have been no updates since.

Thau's anti-LGBT, anti-Reform 'Hazon' movement

Thau [who is following the Bible] was one of the founders of the Hazon movement which later led to the development of the Noam Party led by Avi Maoz, who currently serves as a deputy minister in the Prime Minister's Office.

The Hazon movement made its debut ahead of elections in 2019 with a large banner at the entrance to Jerusalem reading "A father and a mother = a family. The courage to be normal."

The banner was part of a much larger campaign started by Hazon, which described itself as a movement dedicated to "returning the Jewish character to the national agenda in Israel." The campaign was centered on using the time before the election to pressure politicians to agree to a religious Jewish agenda for the State.

While Hazon's campaign targeted a variety of topics, including work and public transport on Shabbat, the Women of the Wall movement (all of which were described by the movement as "not normal"), the vast majority of the campaign focused on LGBT matters.

The Hazon movement has largely been replaced by the Noam Party, which ran on an identical campaign, with its tagline being "a normal nation in our land." The head of the party has expressed strong opposition to LGBT people, Reform Jews, "left-wing entities," and Yeshivat Har Etzion.

The head of the Noam Party was given the authority to open a new governmental body called the "Jewish National Identity Authority" which received a budget of NIS 120 million for 2023. Maoz was also given control of the unit responsible for external programming in the education system, raising concerns that he could block thousands of programs covering everything from LGBT tolerance, to Jewish programs that aren't in line with Yeshivat Har Hamor's ideology.

Another affiliate of the Noam Party, Rabbi Tzvi Kustiner, the head of the hesder yeshiva in Mitzpe Ramon, was filmed last year telling students "This is the battle that I tell everyone, each one in his place. Don't be shy. Be courageous. Where you work say 'LGBT+ people, go home!' 'gays, go home!'"

Kustiner claimed there was much violence and sexual abuse among LGBT+ people, and called them "Evil people! They're going to put this craziness in every home and we're silent, scared. Parent 1, parent 2, crazy!" according to the video.

"Fight them [perversion] on everything. It is our job in every place not to be ashamed of our Judaism. This crazy government, this insanity, God willing it will fall," added the yeshiva head, with a number of students responding "Amen," the video footage shows.

Fink [who is a Left-wing HOMOSEXUAL activist], who filed the police complaint against Thau on Monday, [Fink] stated "Exactly 8 years after Shira Banki's murder, there are important and dark rabbis [not dark because they are Bible following rabbis] who have [the following is a twisted backwards lie by Fink>] forgotten what it is to be Jewish and continue to incite against hundreds of thousands of members of the LGBT community [Thau is stating God's Bible and stating God's Bible is NOT NOT NOT inciting]. When a leading rabbi in the community calls on his followers to take action, the action may be taken. The police must act a moment before the next murder [LGBT “must” be told to REPENT of their sexual perversion].” [Just like the citizens of Canada should tell Prime Minister Trudeau to repent of his support of perverts.]

The Agudah - The Association for LGBTQ Equality in Israel - condemned Thau’s comments as well, stating “Iran is here.” The Agudah added that it had filed a police complaint against Thau, saying the rabbi was inciting violence with his comments [stating God’s Bible is NOT NOT NOT inciting violence].

[The following is a twisted BACKWARDS LIE, THAT ‘REALLY” SAYS: “DO NOT FOLLOW THE BIBLE”]. “It is impossible to ignore wild and extreme incitement written in black and white with the aim of harming the members of the LGBTQ community and erasing us,” said the Agudah. “The masks have been removed, this is the vision of the extremist parties in the Knesset, written in black and white: to wipe us [sin] out.” “This is the spiritual father of Avi Maoz who serves in the Israeli government as a deputy minister in the Prime Minister's Office, with budgets of hundreds of millions of shekels.

[The following is another TWISTED backwards statement>] This is the face of the hatred in the Yeshiva that is budgeted from our tax money in excess of five million shekels each year. The harm to the gay [perverts] community is already present on the ground in an unprecedented increase in the cases of violence and hatred against LGBT people [perverts], we cannot allow this [speaking TRUTH] to continue and we will use all the legal tools at our disposal against bloodshed [AGAINST THE TRUTH].”

LGBT-phobia on the rise

LGBT-phobia [there is NO phobia BECAUSE people are following God’s Instruction Manual/The Bible] [but Satan through LGBT is trying to destroy humanity] has been on the rise in recent years and [speaking out against LGBT] has spiked since the government led by Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu took office. 3,309 cases of LGBT-phobia were reported in 2022, an 11% increase compared to the previous year [THIS IS A GOOD THING] to challenge homosexuality]. There was a seven-fold increase in the number of LGBT-phobic incidents involving public figures and the media, a five-fold increase in the number of LGBT-phobic incidents in public places and an eight-fold increase in cases of discrimination at businesses. A survey by the Israeli Institute for Gender and LGBT Studies in May found that a vast majority (86%) of LGBT+ Israelis [queers] across the country report that their sense of security had deteriorated [this is a good thing so that they can know that homosexuality is wrong] in the prior three months. 77% of the respondents [queers] stated that they do not trust the police to protect them [queers].

According to the Agudah - The Association for LGBT Equality in Israel, in March there was a four-fold increase in LGBT-phobic incidents [this is a good thing to challenge homosexuality] compared to last March.

Tzvi Joffe contributed to this report.