“HIS HAND IS STRETCHED OUT STILL”

Almighty God we pray that your Holy Spirit will fill us and draw us closer to you as we study your word and hear your truth that is full of wisdom and understanding. We are earnestly looking for your coming kingdom and ask that you will guide us and direct your people wherever they may be scattered on this earth. Put your angels about us and help us to walk with you each day. All praise, honor and glory we give to you. These things we ask in the righteous and holy name of Yeshua your son. Amen!

It is Av 26. Just a few more days, and it will be Elul the last month of the year and immediately precedes the fall holy days. The forty day period—between Rosh Chodesh (first day of the month) Elul and the tenth of Tishrei—is a time of reconciliation, a period of repentance and forgiveness and the month where we begin preparing for the Feast of Tabernacles and the fall high holy days. In a sense, when we begin preparing in a yearly manner for the coming of the coming of Messiah and fellowship with him. Yom Terruah, Yom Kippur (Atonement —“at-one-with”-God) followed by Tabernacles (dwelling with God in the Sukah/temporary dwelling). Time is rapidly flying by and here we are with just a few days and the end of the month of Av already.

Well, God has blessed our efforts with an abundant garden harvest of: tomatoes, Japanese eggplant, cucumbers, squash, herbs, cabbage, beets, mustard and turnip greens, chard, peppers, and we look forward to enjoying the green beans, corn and potatoes. Cappy also kept the good parts of the turnip roots that were edible. Berries and apricots are finished bearing and it will soon be time to pick pears, peaches, plums, apples and grapes. The recent summer rains have helped the crops in the Okanogan valley. I appreciate the slower pace of Omak and the peaceful tranquility in the Okanogan River Valley with the mountain vistas and the flat lands away from the hustle, noise, city traffic and danger that’s found in much of today’s suburbia.

Rioting and more than a week of demonstrations in Ferguson, Missouri occurred over the fatal shooting of 18-year-old Michael Brown by a police officer, August 9. This represents just the latest spate of race-based mass violence to break out in America. Darren Wilson, police officer in Ferguson, Mo., suffered severe facial injuries including a bone fracture near one eye and was nearly beaten unconscious by Brown moments before firing his gun, a source close to the department's top brass told FoxNews.com. When Wilson ordered Michael Brown and his friend Dorain Johnson to stop walking in the middle of the road because they were obstructing traffic they ignored him. The officer started to get out of the car to tell them to move, and they shoved him right back in. At that point Michael Brown leans in and starts beating Officer Wilson in the head and the face. The officer was left dazed by the initial confrontation. The source said, “there is ‘solid proof’ that there was a struggle between Brown and Wilson for the policeman’s firearm, resulting in the gun going off – although it still remains unclear at this stage who pulled the trigger. Brown started to walk away according to the account, prompting Wilson to draw his gun and ordered him to freeze. Brown raised his hands in the air, and turned around saying, ‘What, you’re going to shoot me?’ At that point, the source told FoxNews.com, the 6-foot-4, 292-pound Brown charged Wilson, prompting the officer to fire at least six shots at him, including the fatal bullet that penetrated the top of Brown’s skull, according to an independent autopsy conducted at the request of Brown’s family.”

Wilson is white and Brown was black. The St. Louis county grand jury is weighing this case over and will decide whether to charge Wilson. While Ferguson is a mostly African-American suburb, the grand jurors were selected from a county-wide pool of registered voters. A lot of people with inflamed emotions say they want “justice” but they are really asking for revenge and want the policeman to get convicted and sentenced. It would seem many think Wilson should atone for all the sins of mankind. That has already been done by Jesus Christ who paid the penalty of death for all mankind. This is partly because agitators like Al Sharpton and Jessie Jackson arrived in Ferguson, to stir up more strife among the people calling for prosecution with the attitude of wanting all whites to pay for the injustices done. Obama ordered US Attorney General Eric Holder to fly to Ferguson to personally oversee the investigation into Brown’s death.

Missouri State Senator Jamilah Nasheed interviewed on the Kelly File (8/21/14) wants the St. Louis County prosecutor gone and stated that she is “speaking for the black community.” Quote: “the only way that justice can be served is for R.P. McCulloch— recuse yourself self in the Michael Brown shooting case: “If you should decide not to indict this police officer, the rioting we witnessed this past week will seem like a picnic compared to the havoc that will likely occur.” Nasheed says McCulloch can’t be objective because his policeman father was killed by a black man.

People can be deceived and are being easily led astray by the manipulators that stir up emotions which leads to wars, i.e. race war or religious war. This is because they do not stop to think or analyze. In the world today, the majority of people have not been taught critical thinking. Critical thinking means analytical thinking. First you get the facts. Then you parse the facts and put the facts all together until you see the picture and have a good idea of what the truth really is. Until this is completed, you hold your emotions in check. A few people are being warned about what is coming and that the days are as in the days of Noah. Jonathan Cahn is one of them warning and World Net Daily’s Whistleblower magazine.

2 Kings 17:6—Israel, after dwelling about 700 years in the land God gave them (721 B.C. –718 B.C.), the children of Israel had sinned against God who had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and feared other gods. These are the sins for which the ten tribes of Israel were carried into captivity by the king of Assyria.

1. Walked in the statutes of the heathen, whom the Lord cast out from before Israel.
2. Secretly did those things that were not right before the Lord their God, and they built them altars in all their high places in all their cities, from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.
3. Set up images and groves in every high hill and under every green tree.
4. Burned incense in all the high places as did the heathen.

5. Served idols that the Lord had said, you shall not do this thing.

Verses 13-17—“Yet the Lord testified against Israel, and against Judah by all the prophets, and by all the seers saying: Turn from your evil ways and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers and which I sent to you by my servants and the prophets.” God sent people to Israel with perception and insight. But the people followed their inclinations and did what they willed and followed the ways of the flesh—

- they hardened their necks like their fathers and did not believe
- rejected his statutes, covenant made with their fathers
- rejected his testimonies which he testified against them
- followed vanity and became vain
- went after the heathen that were round about them, whom the Lord had charged them: ‘do not do like them.’
- left all the commandments of God
- made molten images – 2 calves
- made a grove, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and
- served Baal
- caused their sons and daughters to pass through the fire
- used divination and enchantment
- sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the Lord, to provoke him to anger

There was nothing off limits—mayhem and murder. Verse 18—“Therefore the Lord was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there was none left but the tribe of Judah.”

There is a reason why people of Iraq hate America. They hate us because of what we have done in waging war and killing civilians and innocents along with the “so called enemies”. If you knew the truth about that, I think that you would find it appalling. I will give you just a glimpse of the truth. First of all, Saddam Hussein was put into office by the American government to be a buffer against Iran. Iran went radical because of the foolishness of ex-president Jimmy Carter. Then the former head of the CIA, George H. W. Bush was Vice President during Reagan’s eight years. Bush kept a low profile and governing behind the scenes in much of the day to day administration while Reagan was the acting spokesman. Even though Reagan had a near perfect photographic memory he began to have memory problems during his last two years in office.

After WW II German scientists, knowledgeable experts in mind control were brought from Nazi Germany to America to help defend America. America began the CIA who with the military began to control and set policies. This is documented in historical accounts. After Carter Reagan became president and Iraq was set up as a buffer to Iran and arms sent to Hussein in Iraq, thinking Hussein would be on America’s side and bring about the New World Order more quickly. George H. W. Bush decided America needed an excuse to destabilize the Middle East and then get in there and save it through U.N. teamwork of the Security Council and America. From the books I have read, ambassadors were sent to Iraq to let Saddam know before the first Gulf War that it would not interfere in its quarrel with Kuwait. Kuwait as a state separate from Iraq was a creation of the British to protect their oil interests. Saddam Hussein accused Kuwait of keeping oil prices low and pumping more than its quota from the two countries' shared oil field. Iraq had never accepted its British-drawn borders, which established Kuwait as a separate entity. Kuwait was a major supplier of oil to the United States. The Iraqi takeover posed an immediate threat to neighboring Saudi Arabia, another major exporter of oil. If Saudi Arabia fell to Saddam, Iraq would control one-fifth of the world's oil supply. And when Kuwait refused to waive Iraq's war debts, Saddam Hussein invaded. The Gulf War (2 August 1990 – 28 February 1991), Operation Desert Shield (2 August 1990 – 17 January 1991), leading to the buildup of troops and defense of Saudi Arabia. Operation Desert Storm (17 January 1991 – 28 February 1991) was a war waged by coalition forces from 34 nations led by the United States against Iraq in response to Iraq's invasion and annexation of Kuwait.

Beginning at his January 29, 2002 State of the Union address, President G. W. Bush, Jr. began publicly focusing attention on Iraq, which he labeled as part of an "axis of evil" allied with terrorists and posing "a grave and growing danger" to U.S. interests through possession of "weapons of mass destruction". The second Iraq war effort was joined by more than 30 other nations (most notably the United Kingdom and Australia) who the Bush Administration designated the "coalition of the willing". The invasion of Iraq commenced on March 20, 2003, ostensibly to pre-empt Iraqi WMD deployment and remove Saddam from power who had tried to have Bush, Sr. assassinated for attacking Iraq after assuring him it would be alright to attack Kuwait.

America did nothing to change the Iraqi government, nor bring them Christianity or peace. We tried to bring a coalition between the Sunni and Shiite Muslims to work together, and then we would withdraw. America has found that these two groups will not work together. The Sunni's are divided among themselves and are anti-American (West) and Anti-Christian. I do not understand the lack of strategic (critical) thinking of our leaders and governmental officials. The U.S. has been siding with the Muslim Brotherhood who have been inciting violence throughout the Middle East fanning the flames of revolution and deposing governments. Efforts to depose President Bashad al Assad in Syria has been unsuccessful. The fighters trained by the U.S. government (CIA) in Jordan became members of the ISIS (The Islamic State of Syria and Iraq) after their training. Their leader Al-Douri has a huge war chest at his disposal, which has come from U.S. allies, including Kuwait, Qatar and Saudi Arabia. These are all Sunni based countries which support the ISIS group.

2 Kings 27:16-18—“And they left all the commandments of the LORD their God, and made them molten images, even two calves, and made a grove, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served Baal.<sup>17</sup> And they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and used divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.<sup>18</sup> Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there was none left but the tribe of Judah only.” Obedience to God is the only way to security and prosperity. Hosea 7:1-11—“When I would have healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim was discovered, and the wickedness of Samaria: for they commit falsehood; and the thief cometh in, and the troop of robbers spoileth without.<sup>2</sup> And they consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them about; they are before my face.<sup>3</sup> They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their lies.

<sup>4</sup> They are all adulterers, as an oven heated by the baker, who ceases from raising after he hath kneaded the dough, until it be leavened.<sup>5</sup> In the day of our king the princes have made him sick with bottles of wine; he stretched out his hand with scorners.<sup>6</sup> For they have made ready their heart like an oven, whiles they lie in wait: their baker sleeps all the night; in the morning it burns as a flaming fire.<sup>7</sup> They are all hot as an oven, and have devoured their judges; all their kings are fallen: there is none among them that calls unto me.<sup>8</sup> Ephraim, he hath mixed himself among the people; Ephraim is a cake not turned.<sup>9</sup> Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knows it not: yea, gray hairs are here and there upon him, yet he knows not.<sup>10</sup> And the pride of Israel testifies to his face: and they do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek him for all this (despite all these things). Ephraim is like a silly dove without heart: they call to Egypt, they go to Assyria.” People are just not ready to repent today—to acknowledge their sins, their wickedness—and cry out to God, “Save me.” Unless, or until they do become willing and do humble themselves before God, they will not be saved, but perish.

Hosea 7:11—“Ephraim also is like a silly dove without heart: they call to Egypt, they go to Assyria.” This speaks of America’s foreign policy--the fact that we created the mess in the Middle East and the chaos, and the vacuum in Iraq now taken over by the militant ISIS. Withdrawing from Afghanistan, presents the possibility of it being taken over by the radicals, also. Islamist militants have declared an Islamic caliphate in an area straddling Iraq and Syria. They have captured the imagination of the average Muslim and uniting. Taken globally, the younger generation of the jihadist community is becoming more supportive of Isis, largely out of fealty to its slick and proven capacity for attaining rapid results through brutality. Abu Mosa, a spokesman for the terror group, ISIS, has warned the United States that it plans to attack America and raise “the flag of Allah in the White House.” Verse 12—“When they shall go, I will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven; I will chastise them, as their congregation hath heard.” People today have gathered themselves together in churches where they are told things they want to hear and the prosperity gospel.

God says—<sup>13</sup> “Woe unto them! for they have fled from me: destruction unto them! because they have transgressed against me: though I have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies against me.<sup>14</sup> And they have not cried unto me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds: they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me.<sup>15</sup> Though I have bound and strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief against me.<sup>16</sup> They return, but not to the most High: they are like a deceitful bow: their princes shall fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue: this shall be their derision in the land of Egypt.” Bibles have been banned in our schools, so if a student brings a Bible to school he is told to take it home. In the military it is ok for Muslim soldiers to have their Koran and prayer life, but it’s not ok for the Christian soldier to have a Bible. America is trying to bring about the New World Order alliance of nations and destroy the old order of nations.

Is this the beginning of the end for America today? A lot of books are coming out about what is happening in America and the world. My wife picked up a book just this week entitled, "We Have Been Had." It is a case of too little and too late and turning our backs on God's law and way to life. Shoebat.com (8/17/14) —"Here is yet another story that should be headline news. ISIS Muslims just slaughtered three hundred people and captured 3,500 women (some as young as 10) and children for sex and slavery. In one area they butchered 300 people, including men and elderly, and then seized 1000 women and children, with another 2500 women and children they captured earlier. Kurdish officials have said, "Over 300 Yazidi men were killed and 1,000 women and children were taken hostage after Islamist militants stormed their village in north-western Iraq. The massacre of members of the minority faith — denounced by the jihadists as "devil worshippers" — took place after members of the Sunni extremist group Isis, also known as Islamic State, laid siege to their village, Kocho, on Friday. The Yazidis were then told: "You have two choices: be killed or convert to Islam."

Personalliberty.com—Islamic State Sending Chills through World Capitals-John Meyers. "The Mideast, the depository for two-thirds of the world's oil reserves and the last of the world's cheap oil, is a cauldron of petroleum set to be ignited by a religious war. Attorney General Eric Holder underlined this when he described the threat posed by the Islamic State group as 'more frightening than anything I think I've seen as attorney general.' Holder expressed his fears because 7,000 people from more than 70 nations, including the U.S., have answered the Islamic State group's call to arms and have received training in Iraq and Syria. Their ultimate goal is to control all of greater Arabia and reverse European and multinational imperialism, which they feel has enslaved Syria and Iraq. Their ultimate ambitions can be expected to include Saudi Arabia, Kuwait and other rich oil producers of the region. The group (aka ISIS or ISIL) is a self-sustaining army, the likes of which has not been seen since Hitler's Wehrmacht rolled first West and then across Europe and into North Africa."

"On Aug. 1, Belfast Telegraph ran this headline: 'Isis winning its war on two fronts: conquering Sunni regions of Iraq and consolidating their hold on north-eastern Syria.' The Telegraph reported: 'There is no sign that Isis is running out of steam in either the Syrian or Iraqi parts of the caliphate declared by Abu Bakr al-Baghdadi on 29 June.' By capturing huge oil and gas wells and selling them on the black market for a third of the benchmark price, the Islamic State group is a self-sustaining army."

Yet Saudi royals must accept a great deal of responsibility for the Islamic State group, which was spawned from the ultra-Islamic sect of Wahhabism — the most extreme form of Islam. The Wahhabis don't want to be part of a new world order. They want complete global domination and adoption of Islam throughout the world. So dominant has the Islamic State group become that it is even spreading its firebrand beliefs from India to Europe and perhaps soon to the United States. The fastest growing religious groups in Germany are jihadists or salafist Islamic organizations that are recruiting young people not even of Turkish or Arabic origins. They are recruiting young German kids who are disaffected, have no goal in life, unemployed or facing a bleak future, and they are being recruited to believe in something, to believe in "dying for Allah".

There are a lot of unhappy young people in America. Disaffected American kids are going to start joining the ranks, plus infiltrates and those crossing our southern open border. They hear the propaganda in our cities as in Ferguson, Missouri, and see the confrontation with demonstrations and the threat of race war that hangs over America, they listen to speakers brought in like Al Sharpton and Jessie Jackson fanning the flames, because of alleged police brutality and oppression with armored government vehicles as a show of force. I mention this because there was someone with an ISIS sign prominently displayed in this recent demonstration as well. Civil disturbance can serve to recruit more followers to help revolutionists create chaos and to bring our country down in bloodshed and destruction. Mark 3:25—“And if a house be divided against itself, that house cannot stand.” Matthew 12:25—“ Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand.” Luke 11:17—“Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth.” If we allow our enemies to sow discord among the people it leads to violence and our future will be bleak.

When George H. W. Bush was in Kuwait to receive a reward Saddam attempted to have Bush assassinated, but failed. But the Bushes have long memories. President George W. Bush, Jr. after 911 and destruction of the Twin Trade Towers blamed Saddam as causing it and led a war against Iraq in which Saddam was captured and put to death and Bush claimed victory and the war finished. Was the war really over? NO, the war went underground. A lot of U.S. military equipment stockpiles of weapons were left behind and ISIS has captured them which helped them to become a major power in the Middle East. Americans are sick of war and do not want another war, and Obama has shrunk our military. But that is not the big problem – it is a lack of vision and insight.

“How the CIA Supported the Rise of the Muslim Caliphate and Antichrist” by Walid Shoebat and Ben Barrack (8//16/14). “Today, there is much talk about the rise of the Muslim Caliphate and the CIA; the latter’s former members are not immune from blame. Take former CIA Director James Woolsey (1993-95) as an example of someone spreading a disinformation campaign. When Shoebat met Woolsey in Detroit prior to the Arab Spring, he found him to be a fox in sheep’s clothing. A year or two prior to that meeting Woolsey gave a speech in which he strongly implied that leaders of Middle Eastern countries should be toppled in order to make the Saudis and Egyptian regime of Mubarak ‘nervous’ while he neglected to explain what would fill the vacuum—‘the problem is not Islam’.” All this goes to show the American naivete. Since the Arab Spring began in 2011, there have been two primary beneficiaries generally – the Muslim Brotherhood and Turkey. Turkey used to be the head of the Ottoman Empire up until WW I. Turkey sided with the Germans and they lost the war and their empire and were supposed to retreat from the Middle East and had to give up control of Jerusalem and Israel.

“The Brotherhood itself was founded to restore the Caliphate known as the Ottoman Empire and it was the Sufis who are at the forefront and have been working hand-in-glove with the Muslim Brotherhood toward that common goal. This is why those who supported regime change in places like Libya, Syria, Tunisia, and Egypt in 2011-2012 in both Republican and Democrat camps were so dangerous. Woolsey hung his hat on the idea that moderate Islam exists and Sufi Islam is its face. More specifically, Kabbani’s brand of Sufism is of the Naqshbandi Order, which is featured prominently on his website. For some context, the diabolical Prime Minister of Turkey (soon to be President) Recep Tayyip Erdogan is from the Naqshbandi background. He is also adamant in his support of Hamas in Gaza and ISIS, the Islamic State in Iraq and Syria. Evidence strongly suggests that the Hitler-loving Erdogan was actually behind last year’s chemical attack in Syria the Obama administration attempted to blame on Bashar al-Assad.”

“Anyone who buys the notion that Sufi Islam is a safe manifestation of Islam is feeding right into the desires of those who wish to see the return of the Ottoman Empire as Erdogan does. This is why it is so dangerous to seek the overthrow of leaders of Middle Eastern nation states, a predictable consequence of the Arab Spring. Each time this happens, it strengthens Turkey, Erdogan, and the Naqshbandi Sufis whom Woolsey has lauded. Not coincidentally, this has all coincided with the sharp rise in Christian genocide. It was the Ottomans who perpetrated the Armenian genocide holocaust that Erdogan himself denies today. During the Ground Zero mosque (GZM) controversy in 2010, Woolsey was part of a team that compiled and published a comprehensive – and largely helpful – Team B II Report. The report dealt extensively with Muslim Brotherhood infiltration of the U.S. and the corresponding threat of Sharia law, even showing ties between the GZM and Muslim Brotherhood front groups. However, it neglected to point out that the Imam behind it, Feisal Abdul Rauf, is a Sufi Muslim. Perhaps no other figure represents better the nexus where the Muslim Brotherhood, Sufism, and stealth jihad meet than Rauf. Yet, he was not even mentioned in the report.” The word “Sufi” appears in Woolsey’s Team B II report one time and its use comports with what Woolsey told Shoebat just two years earlier....

“any Muslim individual or organization that does not embrace shariah and the MB line has not been able to gain broad recognition as a Muslim-American force in America. Instead, they are systematically ostracized, delegitimized and, in some cases, directly threatened. We saw this in the Alamoudi network’s bid to marginalize the Islamic Supreme Council of America, a Sufi organization led by Sheikh Muhammad Hisham Kabbani who warned often about Muslim Brotherhood operations against the United States as they were being put into place.”

“Consider that one of the authors of Team B II – former FBI Agent John Guandolo – appeared on the radio show of another Team B II author – Tom Trento – last year and reported that the current head of the CIA John Brennan converted to Islam while the station chief in Saudi Arabia in the 1990’s. The first World Trade Center bombing is what led to Sudan being put on the U.S. State Department list of State Sponsors of Terrorism in 1993. Woolsey took his job as CIA Director just weeks prior to that bombing. As a result, being a CIA Director, he must know all about Sudan, right? As such, he must know all about Abubaker Y. Al Shingieti, a high-ranking official in Sudan's government from 1990-98, both before and after that country was identified as a State Sponsor of Terrorism. The same Muslim Brotherhood government in place and led by Omar al-Bashir then is still in power today. In 2014, Shingieti is a mover and a shaker... in the U.S. He holds positions of prominence with Muslim Brotherhood front groups."

"Dar al-Hijrah and First World Trade Center Attack The first World Trade Center attack occurred on the watches of President Bill Clinton and none other than his CIA Director James Woolsey. There was Sudanese involvement in the attack, which made it a CIA matter generally and a Woolsey matter specifically. Perhaps more disturbing are the powerful politicians with whom Estwani was able to curry favor. Shockingly, two of those politicians include Bill and Hillary Clinton all during the time that al-Hanooti was serving as an Imam in Estwani's mosque. If anyone should be outraged with the Clintons, it should be Woolsey. Yet, he remains silent on this connection (a Google search of Woolsey and Estwani points you solely to our work). Whether a conscious factor or not, this has the effect of protecting Woolsey's former boss – Bill Clinton."

Both America and Ancient Israel have fulfilled this prophecy in Isaiah 9:9-10— "The bricks are fallen down, but we will build with hewn stones: the sycamores are cut down, but we will change them into cedars." In 734-732 B.C., ancient Israel was attacked by Assyria. But Israel rebuilt with hewn bricks and replaced the sycamore. Fourteen years later Assyria returned, attacked Israel (718 B.C.) and carried the people away into captivity. Modern Ephraim (America) was attacked on 9-11 at the end of this age and the twin trade towers were destroyed. What was our reaction? Defiantly, America said the same thing and rebuilt. If we compare that with today, counting fourteen years it will be 2015 which is next year —the final year of the blood red moon tetrads – and it is also a shemita year which starts Rosh Hoshana 2014.

What is a shemita? Of biblical origin, this is the final year of a calendar cycle, when land is left fallow, debts are forgiven, and a host of other agricultural and economic adjustments are made to ensure the maintenance of an equitable, just, and healthy society. The Sabbath year (shemita Hebrew: הַשְּׁמִיטָה, literally "release") also called the Isaiah 9:12—"The Syrians before, and the Philistines behind; and they shall devour Israel with open mouth. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still." God is not finished with us yet. <sup>13</sup> "For the people turneth not unto him that smiteth them, neither do they seek the LORD of hosts. <sup>14</sup> Therefore the LORD will cut off from Israel head and tail, branch and rush, in one day. <sup>15</sup> The ancient and honorable, he is the head; and the prophet that teacheth lies, he is the tail. <sup>16</sup> For the leaders of this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed.

<sup>17</sup> Therefore the LORD shall have no joy in their young men, neither shall have mercy on their fatherless and widows: for everyone is an hypocrite and an evildoer, and every mouth speaketh folly. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.” If we would just change our ways and repent, God would withdraw his hand of punishment. This punishment is because of our own evil doings—disobedience of God’s laws, commandments and idolatry. God is not yet finished and he is still angry.

Why is God’s hand still stretched out? Isaiah 9:18-19—“For wickedness burneth as the fire: it shall devour the briars and thorns, and shall kindle in the thickets of the forest, and they shall mount up like the lifting up of smoke. <sup>19</sup> Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts is the land darkened, and the people shall be as the fuel of the fire: no man shall spare his brother.” Cities will be devoured. <sup>20</sup> “And he shall snatch on the right hand, and be hungry; and he shall eat on the left hand, and they shall not be satisfied: they shall eat every man the flesh of his own arm: <sup>21</sup> Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh: and they together shall be against Judah. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.” Our economy will crash, transportation delivery systems will fail, civil strife will occur, famine will be prevalent..

Isaiah 10:1—“Woe unto them that decree unrighteous decrees, and that write grievousness which they have prescribed; <sup>2</sup> To turn aside the needy from judgment, and to take away the right from the poor of my people, that widows may be their prey, and that they may rob the fatherless.”

Washington is decreeing unrighteous laws by use of presidential executive orders—ruling by executive order. God says, <sup>4</sup> “Without me they shall bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.”

How could millions ever die in America? We have 300 million people in America, and our world today is more dangerous than ever. God is going to finish the job and punish man until the lesson is learned. He is calling his people to repentance and to return to Him. He is sending multiple prophets and servants to this world calling people to repent, but they are not listening. Things around the world globe are becoming more unsettled and mounting up on every front.

War is looming in south Asia between Pakistan and India, two hostile countries with nuclear power. Both lay claim to the 85,000 square mile territory that lies in India's Kashmir Valley as theirs. The Zero Line (Line of Control) is the highly militarized 460 mile border covered by a double row of 12-foot high, electrified barbed wire fencing. Where the fencing stops, row after row of land mines begin which runs through this disputed area separating Pakistan and India. In reality there is no control because both claim Kashmir as theirs. The Kashmir dispute is defined by the violent partition of British India (dissolution of the British Raj) in 1947 and two new sovereign nations were formed—the Union of India and the Dominion of Pakistan. India emerged as a secular nation with a Hindu majority population and a large Muslim minority while Pakistan was established as an Islamic republic with an overwhelming Muslim majority population. Consequently, upwards of 12.5 million became displaced in the transition. Tensions between the two hostile countries have already led to the eruption of three major wars since 1947.

There are nine nations that currently possess an estimated 17,330 nuclear warheads. Between these two nations alone exists 230 nuclear weapons which is enough nuclear weaponry to level the entire planet. The Prime Minister of Pakistan has declared the flashpoint which could spark the next war has now been triggered. On both sides of the Zero Line, the Indian and Pakistani armies have deployed an estimated 650,000 troops and tens of thousands of police and paramilitary forces. In the Himalayan Mountains, snipers are camped out in camouflage posts. They've even taken this conflict 20,000 feet above the Zero Line in the Siachen Glacier. Pakistan can initiate its First-Use policy and pre-emptively start a nuclear war with India at any moment—OVER ONE RIVER, the Indus River.

The Indus River provides Pakistan with 90% of its freshwater for agriculture, 50% of the country's employment, and 25% of its GDP. They call the Indus River "the water of life." The Indus River begins in India before crossing over the Zero Line. In 1960, Pakistan and India sat down to negotiate a tense agreement called the Indus Waters Treaty. It gave complete control of the Indus River and two of its tributaries to Pakistan with one catch. Apparently nobody in Pakistan caught that India can use the Indus River for: 1) Power generation, 2) Irrigation. In 1960 when Pakistan signed the Indus Waters Treaty, they had a population of 45 million people. Today they have 178 million. When India signed that treaty, they had a population of 48 million people. Today, India has 1.2 billion. India's electric demands have shot up over 613 percent and folks there have seen their electricity prices spike 500 percent. India has to double their energy production capabilities within the next few years just to satisfy their growing population.

India has tested a new type of nuclear weapon intercontinental, ballistic missile – the Agni-5 with a range of 3,417 mile radius armed with nuclear weapon capabilities. This situation is fueled also by religious conflicts, so mutual destruction does not apply—they don't care if they die.. This is a wake-up call to the entire world. This could create WW III.

Early last year India began construction on at least 45 hydropower facilities on the Indus River and its Pakistan-controlled tributaries to boost their hydropower capabilities by 4,000 percent. Essentially, India is damming off much of the flow of the Indus River before it even crosses the Zero Line. India's groundwater supplies are declining so fast, it's estimated they'll be gone in a few years. This has created a line-in-the-sand situation, because Pakistan is already dry to the bone. They have enough water reserves for only 30 days—at any given time—in that country. Many of the 178 million Pakistanis now face life threatening water shortages and they have formed on united front, a United Jihad Council, and declared a holy war brought on by "water crises." Many of them claim allegiance to one of at least eight radical Islamic groups – including Al-Zaeda and the Taliban. The Taliban are dangerously close to these nuclear warheads and has potentially catastrophic sway over much of the military. The National Intelligence Community, the Council on Foreign Relations, and UK's Ministry of Defense all conclude: because of the water crisis, Pakistan's next war could be nuclear.

This situation has taken us into a “Zero sum world” game of “political upheaval,” “terrorism,” and “war”. The Great Game is a history repeating itself. The original Great Game occurred in the 1700’s to the early 1900’s. It was the age of Empires—British, Russian, Persian (Ottoman). Those super powers turned the world into a big chess board. That great game ended with the two world wars—WW I and WW II. Since then a new ship of power rose up—The United States. But now, China is rising up in the Empire- building business. Many international secondary players are rising up. ISIS is rising up. Many companies and banks could go bankrupt. Many nations could be on the verge of war and due to our relationship with some of these nations the U.S. is directly involved in this conflict. The House Committee on Foreign Affairs just held hearings on the Emerging threat of Resource Wars. The world is sitting on a powder keg. ISIS has its eye on crossing U.S. open borders.

There is only solution. Joel 2:32—“And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call.” Acts 2:21—“And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.”
